

ADVISEMENT

---

Academic advisement concerning programs of study, courses, and relationship of graduate work to career goals is available to all matriculated students. It is strongly recommended that students meet with their advisor prior to registration. Doctoral students should consult with the director of the doctoral program for academic advisement.