

COMMUNICATION SCIENCES AND DISORDERS, MS

Campus: NYC

The Pace University Master of Science in Communication Sciences and Disorders (CSD) is a full-time, 5-semester program (2 years plus one summer). Sixty-credits of academic and clinical coursework and 400 hours of clinical practicum are required to graduate from the program. Twenty-five of these clinical practicum hours are observational and 50 hours can be obtained at the undergraduate level. Students have access to Pace and CSD facilities, which include an on-site Speech, Language, and Hearing Center (<https://www.pace.edu/college-health-professions/departments/communication-sciences-and-disorders/speech-language-hearing-center/>) with an, audiology test suite and speech lab with state-of-the-art equipment. The clinical practicum experience includes three semesters in-house and two semesters at an external placement.

The Communication Sciences and Disorders, MS program at Pace will prepare graduates to sit for the Speech-Language Pathology PRAXIS examination.

Graduates will be eligible for American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA) (<https://www.asha.org/>) certification as well as other relevant local and state credentials upon graduation. Passing the Praxis examination is a required component for obtaining certification to practice speech-language pathology by ASHA and most states.
