

FAMILY NURSE PRACTITIONER PROGRAM, FNP

Campus: NYC, Westchester

Advance your practice with our renowned MS-FNP program

Pace's Family Nurse Practitioner program offers a 49-credit master of science degree. Make a positive impact on families and communities as an advanced practice nurse. Go beyond the traditional nurses' role, and graduate as a highly-skilled practitioner able to treat patients in hospitals, clinical settings, and private practices.

This allows you to complete the MS-FNP and begin practice as a Family Nurse Practitioner.

- A unique blend of online and on-campus classes, and individually precepted clinical practicum hours in diverse healthcare settings.
- A leader in the field - Pace's FNP was one of the first programs of its kind to focus on family and primary healthcare and prepare you for the FNP role.
- Our FNP program will prepare you to deliver evidence-based, equitable person-centered, primary healthcare to individuals within the context of family and community.
- This program meets requirements for the Family Nurse Practitioner Certification for both the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC) and the American Association of Nurse Practitioners (AANP) certifying organizations.
- Pace offers a certificate of advanced graduate study (

The MS-FNP is offered on both the New York City and Pleasantville campuses.
