

COMMUNICATIONS LC-M (COMM)

---

COMM 396A Topic: Political Communication (3 credits)

This Learning Community will examine American politics through media. We will focus on genres of film which address the role of race, class and gender in politics. We will also look at the mass media of television, radio, print and the internet, as well as how each influences the political process in the United States.