

LATIN (LAT)

LAT 101 Elementary Latin I (3 credits)

An introduction to the fundamentals of classical Latin, including introductory readings.

Course Rotation: NYC: TBA.

LAT 101M Elementary Latin I (3 credits)

Nothing enriches our understanding of today's world and how we perceive ourselves better than a study of the civilization and language from which it seems. This learning community will allow students to explore the wonders of ancient Rome and the Romans as well as learn their language, Latin, and discover the ties which bind both the people and their civilization to today's world.

LAT 102 Elementary Latin II (3 credits)

An introduction to the fundamentals of classical Latin, including introductory readings.

Course Rotation: NYC: TBA.

Prerequisites: LAT 101 or 2 years of high school Latin.

LAT 103 Intermediate Latin I (3 credits)

LAT 104 Intermediate Latin II (3 credits)

LAT 154A Topic: Culture And Civilization of Ancient Rome (3 credits)

A continuation of principles established during the first year with selected readings. Course Conducted in English.

LAT 250 Topics: From Roman Literature in Translation (3 credits)

Course conducted in English.

LAT 251 Topics: From Roman Literature in Translation (3 credits)

Course conducted in English.

LAT 251A Topics: From Roman Literature in Translation: Women in Classical Literature (3 credits)

Course conducted in English.

LAT 395 Independent Study in Latin (1-9 credits)

Prerequisites: One 300-level course.