

THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE INSTITUTE

The English Language Institute (ELI) of Pace University offers English Language instruction for non-native speakers at the New York City and Westchester campuses. The Institute is dedicated to helping international students, visiting professionals, tourists, au pairs, and recent immigrants to improve their English skills for academic study, career advancement, or personal enrichment. ELI students receive Pace University ID cards and have access to facilities and services on all Pace campuses including the libraries, computer labs, recreational and sports facilities, theaters, cafeterias, and health clinics.

ELI courses are offered year-round with six entry dates: September, October, January, March, May, and July. There are two seven-week terms in the Spring and Fall, and a two-week winter term in January. In the Summer, there are two six-week terms, as well as five 2-week Summer School terms. U.S. residents may choose to enroll full-time or part-time, but foreign visitors must enroll part-time (4 to 14 hours per week). Students holding F-1 visas must enroll full-time (at least 18 hours per week).

ADMISSION

The English Language Institute courses are open to any student who is at least 16 years old. TOEFL or other language proficiency exam scores are not required. The English Language Institute is authorized to issue the I-20 document for full-time, intensive English study (18 or more hours per week).

Admission to the English Language Institute does not constitute admission to Pace University. Each undergraduate and graduate degree program has its own admission requirements. However, academically qualified students who successfully complete the Academic English Program are eligible for a language proficiency exam waiver for admission to undergraduate and graduate degree programs at Pace University. Other tests like GMAT and GRE may be required depending on university admissions requirements. For more information, contact the Admission Offices.

*Two levels of Academic English programming required for students applying to Lubin and Dyson.

For more information, contact the English Language Institute at (212) 346-1562 or eli@pace.edu, or visit the ELI webpage (<https://www.pace.edu/eli/>).

COURSES

Noncredit courses are offered from high beginner to advanced proficiency levels. In programs where multiple levels are available, ELI students take a placement test to determine their proficiency level. Once placed in a level, students select courses according to their goals and interests.

Students may select between two tracks: the Intensive English Program or the Academic English Program. The Intensive English Program is for students studying English for general purposes. High beginner to high intermediate level students may take courses in grammar, writing, reading, vocabulary, speaking and listening. Grammar and vocabulary are taught in context in all courses, and class discussion is strongly encouraged. All classes emphasize American culture and use materials from a wide variety of sources including popular media.

The Academic English Program is designed for degree-seeking students who plan to study at Pace or another American university. The curriculum is content-based, emphasizing academic language and skills students need to succeed in a North American university.

Students increase their fluency in English by studying various academic topics using authentic reading material (textbook chapters, essays, and literature) and recorded lectures. They learn research skills, write academic papers, practice note-taking, practice test-taking strategies, and produce academic presentations. TOEFL preparation courses (for non-native speakers) are also offered.

Students may also choose to participate in 2-week Summer School and Winter School courses. International Relations (Model U.N.) is offered for two weeks during the months of July and August. Leadership & Entrepreneurship is offered for two weeks during the months of July and August (Summer School) and two weeks in the month of January (Winter School). English + Filmmaking: From Script to Screen is offered for two weeks in the month of July.

ELI course sections are letter-graded. Grades are recorded in the University's student records, and official transcripts can be obtained online via the National Student Clearinghouse website (<https://www.getmytranscript.com/>) (<https://tsorder.studentclearinghouse.org/school/select/>) or through MyHub (<https://www.myhub.org/home/>). Certificates of completion are available upon request.

INTERNATIONAL SPECIAL PROGRAMS

The English Language Institute/International Special Programs also designs special programs for high school students, university students, corporate clients, and other visiting groups who do not wish to enroll in the regularly scheduled classes. Short-term programs for foreign visitors can be designed to include on-campus or off-campus housing and cultural activities.

For more information, contact the International Special Programs at (212) 346-1562 or isp@pace.edu, or visit the international special programs webpage (<https://www.pace.edu/international-special-programs/>).
