

PEACE AND JUSTICE STUDIES, BA

Campus: NYC

Peace and Justice Studies is an interdisciplinary major that draws on both the social sciences and the humanities. It examines direct, structural, symbolic and environmental violence; social justice; intersectionality; theories and practice of nonviolence and conflict transformation; conflict resolution techniques including negotiation, mediation, and facilitation; reconciliation and transitional justice; human rights and international law and interdisciplinary perspectives on peacebuilding and peace making. This program reflects Pace University's commitment to theory and practice in this interdisciplinary field and is consistent with the University's institutional mission of civic engagement and global citizenship.
